

Assembly Bill No. 350—Committee on Judiciary

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to property; requiring a law enforcement agency to include certain additional information relating to seizures and forfeitures in its annual report to the Office of the Attorney General; requiring the Office of the Attorney General to publish certain reports on its Internet website in a machine-readable format; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires each law enforcement agency to annually submit a report to the Office of the Attorney General containing certain information regarding the seizure and forfeiture of property. Existing law additionally requires the Office of the Attorney General to compile such reports and issue an aggregate report of all forfeitures in this State and make such a report available: (1) on its Internet website; and (2) upon request. (NRS 179.1205) This bill requires each law enforcement agency to include certain additional information relating to seizures and forfeitures in the report that the law enforcement agency submits to the Office of the Attorney General. This bill additionally requires the Office of the Attorney General to make the reports relating to seizures and forfeitures that are published on its Internet website available in a machine-readable format.
