AN ACT relating to property; authorizing tenants subject to certain actions for summary eviction to request that the court stay the action until a decision concerning an application for rental assistance is made and establishing procedures relating thereto; requiring a landlord to accept payment of rent from a tenant and rental assistance on behalf of a tenant under certain circumstances; authorizing a justice court to establish a diversion program for certain tenants subject to an action for summary eviction; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

In general, existing law provides for a summary eviction procedure when a tenant defaults in the payment of rent. (NRS 40.253) Section 9 of this bill authorizes a tenant who has been served with a notice to pay rent or surrender the premises to request that the court stay an action for summary eviction based on a default in the payment of rent until a decision concerning an application for rental assistance is made. Section 9 establishes the procedure for a tenant to request such a stay and criteria for the issuance of a stay. If the court issues such a stay, section 9 authorizes a landlord to file a motion to lift the stay under certain circumstances. If an application for rental assistance is granted in an amount that will allow the tenant in an action that has been stayed to cure the default, section 9 requires the landlord to accept payment of rent from the tenant and rental assistance on behalf of the tenant. If the application for rental assistance is denied or granted in an amount that will not allow the tenant in an action that has been stayed to cure the default, section 9 requires the court to proceed with the action for summary eviction in accordance with the requirements prescribed by existing law. Section 21.2 of this bill makes a conforming change relating to the submission of an affidavit pursuant to section 9.

In general, existing law provides for a summary eviction procedure when a tenant neglects or fails to perform a condition or covenant of a lease or agreement. (NRS 40.254) Section 9.2 of this bill authorizes a tenant who has been served with a notice to surrender the premises to request that the court stay an action for summary eviction based on neglect or failure to perform a condition or covenant of the lease or agreement until a decision concerning an application for rental assistance is made. Section 9.2 establishes the procedure for a tenant to request such a stay and criteria for the issuance of a stay. Among other requirements, section 9.2 requires the tenant to submit proof that: (1) the tenant was in default on the payment when the landlord initiated the action for summary eviction; and (2) the condition or covenant of the lease or agreement that the tenant allegedly neglected or failed to perform is not material to the lease or agreement. If the court issues such a stay, section 9.2 authorizes a landlord to file a motion to lift the stay under certain circumstances. When any stay issued by the court is lifted, section 9.2 requires the court to proceed with the action for summary eviction in accordance with the requirements prescribed by existing law. If an application for rental assistance is granted in an amount that will allow the tenant to cure the default, section 9.2 requires the landlord to accept payment of rent from the tenant and rental assistance on behalf of the tenant. Section 21.4 makes a conforming change relating to the submission of an affidavit pursuant to section 9.2.

Sections 9.1 and 9.3 of this bill create a similar process that becomes effective if and only if Assembly Bill No. 340 of this session is enacted by the Legislature and approved by the Governor.

Section 9.5 of this bill authorizes a justice court to establish a diversion program to which it may assign an eligible tenant subject to an action for summary eviction. Section 9.5 sets forth factors the court may consider in determining whether a tenant is eligible for assignment to such a diversion program. If the court assigns a tenant to such a diversion program, section 9.5 requires the court to: (1) stay the pending action for summary eviction for not more than 60 days; and (2) if the tenant pays the landlord the rent that is in default or surrenders the premises before the expiration of the stay, dismiss the action.

(9) A copy of the signed written rental agreement, if any.

(b) Except when the tenant has timely filed the affidavit described in subsection 3 and a file-stamped copy of it has been received by the landlord or the landlord's agent, and except when the landlord is prohibited pursuant to NRS 118A.480, the landlord or the landlord's agent may, in a peaceable manner, provide for the nonadmittance of the tenant to the premises by locking or otherwise.

6. Upon the filing by the tenant of the affidavit permitted in subsection 3, regardless of the information contained in the affidavit, and the filing by the landlord of the affidavit permitted by subsection 5, the justice court or the district court shall hold a hearing, after service of notice of the hearing upon the parties, to determine the truthfulness and sufficiency of any affidavit or notice provided for in this section. If the court determines that there is no legal defense as to the alleged unlawful detainer and the tenant is guilty of an unlawful detainer, the court may issue a summary order for removal of the tenant or an order providing for the nonadmittance of the tenant. If the court determines that there is a legal defense as to the alleged unlawful detainer, the court shall refuse to grant either party any relief, and, except as otherwise provided in this subsection, shall require that any further proceedings be conducted pursuant to NRS 40.290 to 40.420, inclusive. The issuance of a summary order for removal of the tenant does not preclude an action by the tenant for any damages or other relief to which the tenant may be entitled. If the alleged unlawful detainer was based upon subsection 5 of NRS 40.2514, the refusal by the court to grant relief does not preclude the landlord thereafter from pursuing an action for unlawful detainer in accordance with NRS 40.251.

7. The tenant may, upon payment of the appropriate fees relating to the filing and service of a motion, file a motion with the court, on a form provided by the clerk of the court, to dispute the amount of the costs, if any, claimed by the landlord pursuant to NRS 118A.460 for the inventory, moving and storage of personal property left on the premises. The motion must be filed within 20 days after the summary order for removal of the tenant or the abandonment of the premises by the tenant, or within 20 days after:

(a) The tenant has vacated or been removed from the premises; and

(b) A copy of those charges has been requested by or provided to the tenant,

↳ whichever is later.

8. Upon the filing of a motion pursuant to subsection 7, the court shall schedule a hearing on the motion. The hearing must be held within 10 days after the filing of the motion. The court shall affix the date of the hearing to the motion and order a copy served upon the landlord by the sheriff, constable or other process server. At the hearing, the court may:

(a) Determine the costs, if any, claimed by the landlord pursuant to NRS 118A.460 and any accumulating daily costs; and

(b) Order the release of the tenant's property upon the payment of the charges determined to be due or if no charges are determined to be due.

9. The tenant may, upon payment of the appropriate fees relating to the filing and service of a motion, file a motion with the

1 court on a form provided by the clerk of court to dispute the
2 reasonableness of the actions of a landlord pursuant to subsection 3
3 of NRS 118A.460. The motion must be filed within 5 days after the 4 tenant has vacated or been removed from the premises. Upon the 5 filing of a motion pursuant to this subsection, the court shall
6 schedule a hearing on the motion. The hearing must be held within 5
7 days after the filing of the motion. The court shall affix the date of 8 the hearing to the motion and order a copy served upon the landlord
9 by the sheriff, constable or other process server. At the hearing, the 10 court may:

11 (a) Order the landlord to allow the retrieval of the tenant's
12 essential personal effects at the date and time and for a period
13 necessary for the retrieval, as determined by the court; and

14 (b) Award damages in an amount not greater than $2,500.

15 10. In determining the amount of damages, if any, to be 16 awarded under paragraph (b) of subsection 9, the court shall 17 consider:

18 (a) Whether the landlord acted in good faith;

19 (b) The course of conduct between the landlord and the tenant;
20 and

21 (c) The degree of harm to the tenant caused by the landlord's
22 conduct.

23 11. A landlord shall not refuse to accept rent from a tenant that 24 is submitted after the landlord or the landlord's agent has served or 25 had served a notice pursuant to subsection 1 if the refusal is based 26 on the fact that the tenant has not paid collection fees, attorney's
27 fees or other costs other than rent, a reasonable charge for late
28 payments of rent or dishonored checks, or a security deposit. As 29 used in this subsection, "security deposit" has the meaning ascribed
30 to it in NRS 118A.240.

31 12. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 118A.315, this
