Comment: Changing the age limitation with respect to suspension, expulsion or permanent expulsion of a pupil would provide school districts with flexibility when dealing with students that may require such severe measures. There are rare occasions, when this measure could be in the best interests of the students in the classroom, teachers and paraprofessionals. Professional development would be required for personnel that would be involved in the restorative disciplinary practices that align with the statewide framework for restorative justice. Additional time may be required from counselors, social workers and school administrators with respect to the student support, protocol and paperwork associated with this process but the student population that this may affect is so small that it would not require additional staff.

Impact	FY 2022-23	FY 2023-24	FY 2024-25	Future Biennia
Has Impact	$0	$2,500	$2,500	$5,000
