Local Government Responses
A.B. 247 / BDR 34 - 570

School District: Carson City School District
Approved by: Spencer Winward, Director of Fiscal Services
Comment: Carson City School District cannot determine the fiscal impact of this proposed legislation. The establishment of committees for assessment development and preparation is not likely to have a fiscal impact to the district. As we cannot determine the findings of these committees, we cannot determine what fiscal impacts their may be in the changes from our existing college and career readiness assessments to what may be proposed.

There is additional potential fiscal impact in the changing and development of teacher evaluations but we cannot determine that amount.

We see no measurable fiscal impact from the elimination of required end-of-course finals.
