

NEVADA LEGISLATURE

Eighty-Second Session, 2023

ASSEMBLY DAILY JOURNAL

THE NINETY-NINTH DAY

CARSON CITY (Monday), May 15, 2023

Assembly called to order at 11:51 a.m.

Mr. Speaker presiding.

Roll called.

All present except Assemblywoman Backus, who was excused.

Prayer by the Chaplain Craig Swope.

Father, we gather today to serve. May we never lose our heart for service. Help us to never forget why we are here. The temptation to serve ourselves is always with us. Help us to be purposeful in finding ways to serve. Let us assume there is something we can do. Let us assume that we can make a difference, and with those assumptions, help us make a difference for those we serve. Let us be an example for service and not self. We ask this in your Son's Name.

AMEN.

Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

Assemblywoman Jauregui moved that further reading of the Journal be dispensed with and the Speaker and Chief Clerk be authorized to make the necessary corrections and additions.

Motion carried.

Senate Bill No. 171.

Bill read third time.

Remarks by Assemblymen Jauregui, Gurr, and Peters.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN JAUREGUI:

Senate Bill 171 prohibits a person from purchasing, owning, or having in possession, control, or custody a firearm if the person has been convicted in the immediately preceding ten years of committing or attempting to commit an offense that is a gross misdemeanor constituting a hate crime under Nevada law.

ASSEMBLYMAN GURR:

I rise in opposition to Senate Bill 171. Senate Bill 171 is a bill that restricts Second Amendment rights and was rammed through during only one public hearing, which minimized public participation regarding extremely controversial issues, limiting Second Amendment rights through vague and ambiguous definitions of hate crimes. The bill adds, I think, nonviolent hate crimes to the list of offenses with which someone can lose their Second Amendment rights. We already have laws restricting violent criminals from purchasing firearms in Nevada, thus I believe the letter of the law is already satisfied by existing statute. We already have laws designed to keep guns out of the hands of the same violent criminals that would fall under this law.

The only effective change in SB 171 would be to add nonviolent hate crimes to legal precedent. Considering our First Amendment rights and how many other countries have lost their free speech rights to hate speech laws, I believe this is a very dangerous precedent to set. I would add that if this body would expend more time, energy, and resources to resolving our huge mental health issues and our revolving-door legal system, we may have an impact in the future on these issues without passing any more duplicative laws.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN PETERS:

I rise in support of SB 171. Today, we have an opportunity to reaffirm our promise that hate has no home here in Nevada. Senate Bill 171 is a commonsense measure that will prevent criminals convicted of hate crimes from having access to firearms, which they could use to commit further crimes. We know that not only is gun violence on the rise but also, too, are hate crimes. As the Vice Chair of the LGBTQ+ Caucus, I am particularly disturbed by the fact that members of the LGBTQ+ [lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer/questioning, plus] community are the second most likely group to be victims of hate crimes. Hate crimes are committed against the marginalized and the vulnerable, those we have a duty to protect. I urge you all to join me in supporting Senate Bill 171 to create a safer and more inclusive Nevada.

Roll call on Senate Bill No. 171:
