Approved by: Cadence Matijevich, Government Affairs Liaison
Comment: Washoe County's self-funded employee benefits plan currently covers numerous alternatives to opioid treatments. Some of these alternatives are less costly than opioid treatments, while others are more expensive. While it cannot be known which alternatives might be prescribed by a health care provider, avoidance of the costs associated with opioid addiction treatment for some patients who would have otherwise been prescribed opioids could result in an overall cost reduction to the County's employee benefits plan.
